Gen. Miles' Campaign Approved.

A TUG BOAT SWAMPED.

Killing of a Hackman—Will Advise for Immigrants—Hope to Go East.

[Special to the Herald by the Associated Press.]
TUCSON, A. T., December 16.—The Arizona Cattlemen's Association, in convention here, adopted the following:

Resolved, That the attempt of the Secretary of War to belittle the services of Gen. Miles to the people of Arizona is a reflection upon the wise Indian policy of President Cleveland and an outrage upon the people of the Territory. The citizens of Arizona never demanded the lives of the Apache Indians, but did seek to have these savages removed from the Territory as the only guarantee against future atrocities.

Resolved, That neither malice nor envy in high places can lessen the achievements of Gen. Miles, his officers and soldiers, nor imperil his claim to the lasting gratitude of our people for the prompt removal of these fiends from our Territory, extra official though the act may have been, and we, the citizens of the frontier, whose wives and children lived in mortal terror of their lives till Gen. Miles came to the rescue of our defenseless families, note with pleasure the fact that the President of the United States in his message to Congress appropriately recognized the distinguished services which Gen. Nelson A. Miles has rendered to the people of Arizona.

HACKMAN KILLED.

Michael J. Dolan Shot by William Rowan.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 16.—At 3 o'clock this morning Michael J. Dolan and William Rowan, hackmen, had a dispute about their respective stands at Kearney and Market streets. Dolan reproached Rowan for encroaching upon his domain and soliciting. The police advised the men to refrain and left them. Shortly after five pistol shots were heard. The police hurried back and found Dolan bleeding from five wounds. He died as soon as he reached the hospital. Rowan was arrested, jailed and charged with murder. Rowan claims that the deceased was the aggressor, and during the dispute put his hand on his pistol pocket. Rowan, to defend himself, drew his pistol and shot Dolan. The murdered man was the employer of P. F. Dolan, a hackman, now in the county jail charged with the murder of Dr. Hergarten, a short time since. A search of Dolan's person, after his death, failed to discover a weapon of any kind, nor could any be found in the locality where the shooting took place. The deceased was a native of Ireland, 38 years old, and leaves a wife and five children, the youngest but one year old. Rowan still maintains that the shooting was done in self-defense.

An Immigration Association.

SACRAMENTO, December 16.—The committee appointed yesterday by the Directors of the Central California Citrus Fruit Association to formulate a plan for the co-operative action of the counties in central and northern California with the present Sacramento Immigration Association, agreed upon a plan this morning to have five directors, except the city and county of Sacramento, which is to have nine. These nine, and one to be selected by each county board of directors, to form a central organization at Sacramento.

The Bee and Record Union are getting out mammoth editions devoted to immigration work without advertising. A register has been opened at the Citrus Fair, where Eastern people are invited to enter the names of themselves and friends to whom they would like copies sent when issued. This book already contains nearly two thousand names.

Representatives of a number of Northern California journals held a meeting to-day for the purpose of adopting some systematic plan whereby the resources of this section can be intelligently advertised with a view to attracting immigration. A temporary organization, with C. N. Reed of the Gridley Herald as chairman and G. M. Downer of the Napa Register as secretary, was effected. Another meeting will be held next Friday, when some definite plan will be submitted. This evening the fair was packed almost to suffocation. Ladies constituted a large proportion of those present. On Saturday the awards will be made.

A Tug Lost.

VICTORIA, B. C., December 16.—The officers of the steamer Idaho, which arrived here yesterday state that as the steamer was leaving the Columbia river they were witnesses to a remarkable casualty. For several days a storm raged on the Oregon coast, rendering more dangerous than usual the navigation of the Columbia river. The Idaho for this reason had delayed her departure for two days. A rough sea was running outside the bar and enormous waves were rolling over it. When near the mouth the tug Champion, of Portland, was seen steaming out to sea. She had met and successfully ridden two immense waves which rolled in, and faced a third, which, larger and more terrific, came toward the bar. The tug was seen to enter the wall of water, but when she was looked for beyond the crest of the wave she was not there. She had been engulfed in the sea, and sank with all on board. The Idaho was too far off to render assistance, so quick did it all happen.

Other Districts Heard From.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 16.—The Secretary of State has completed the official canvass of two more Congressional districts, as follows: Fourth District, McCoppin (Dem.), 9,854; Morrow (Rep.), 11,413; Fifth District, Sullivan (Dem.), 16,209; Felton (Rep.), 16,328.

No California Fruits in Chicago.
SAN FRANCISCO, December 16.—The California special says: There are no more California green fruits on the market at present. California dried fruits sell fairly, and the market for them is firm.

Miles' Headquarters to be Los Angeles.

WASHINGTON, December 16.—An order will shortly be issued by the President adding Southern California to the Department of Arizona and to the command of Gen. Nelson A. Miles, and removing his headquarters from Prescott, Arizona, to Los Angeles, California. This will give Gen. Miles command of the whole Mexican frontier, from Texas to the Pacific. The territorial extension of the limits of his command is said by Gen. Miles' friends to be sufficient answer to the charge which has been made that he disobeyed orders in the Apache campaign. Upon being asked to-night whether the extension of his command might not be regarded as equivalent to promotion, Gen. Miles said: "The fact speaks for itself. I do not care to say anything about it."

May Run Omnibuses.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 16.—The street railroad situation remained unchanged to-day. Twenty cars were running on the Sutter-street line and seven on the Geary street. A secret meeting was held by the strikers in the forenoon at which the prospect of a compromise was discussed. It is stated that no definite course of action was decided upon. The strikers are discussing the advisability of running a line of omnibuses along Geary street for the benefit of the people who wish to ride but do not desire to patronize the Geary-street cars while the strike continues.

Pratt Found Guilty.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 16.—The jury in the case of Calvin Pratt, the forger, has been out since yesterday afternoon, came into court at a late hour this afternoon and returned a verdict of guilty. Pratt uttered forged notes in this city and Oakland about a year ago and fled to Japan with the money. A detective sailed after him and the Japanese government surrendered Pratt to the detective. The case has been continued from time to time and the trial only began a few weeks back.

With Eleven Jurymen.

SAN LUIS OBISPO, December 16.—In the Biddle case to-day Judge M. R. Venable, J. P. Andrews and Judge W. L. Beebe testified to their business relations with the testator and to their knowledge of his sanity in so far as they were personally acquainted with him. During the day one juror, Wm. A. Dunbar, was allowed to absent himself from the case on account of the death of his mother, and it was agreed by counsel to continue the case with eleven jurors.

The New Railway Company.

SAN DIEGO, December 16.—Articles of incorporation of the San Bernardino and San Diego Railway Company have been filed in the County Clerk's office. The road will run from Riverside Junction through a portion of Los Angeles county, thence by way of Oceanside and El Cajon valley to the bay of San Diego. The principal stockholder is C. W. Smith, Vice President of the Atchafalaya, Topeka and Santa Fe railway company.

A Ranch Fire.

SAN FERNANDO, December 16.—Last night a fire occurred at the ranch of P. V. Brokaw, about four miles east of here, burning a barn and fifty tons of hay and thirty-three horses. But one horse was rescued. A workman left the house of candle burning in a stable and it is supposed it burned down or fell over causing the conflagration. Loss $40,000; no insurance.

Pitcher Wins by Three.

REDWOOD CITY, Cal., December 16.—The contested election of Henry S. Pitcher for the office of Tax Collector of this county by John C. Edgar, was concluded here to-day in a judgment affirming Pitcher's title to the office by the small majority of three.

Trying to Maintain Rates.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 16.—At a meeting of railroad passenger agents, held this afternoon at the Palace Hotel, it was decided to maintain the present agreement until Wednesday next, when an endeavor will be made to put the Chicago agreement into force.

Hope to Go East.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 16.—Judge Toohy to-day rendered a decision in the habeas corpus case of James Hope, the notorious burglar, remanding him to the custody of Eastern detectives. Hope's attorneys have been granted until Saturday to take a further extension.

Even the Boys Strike.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 16.—Two hundred American District messenger boys went out on a strike this morning. They want fixed wages of seventy-five cents a day, instead of five cents a trip, which they are now getting.

Clever Capture of a Burglar.

The room of Walter Wild at No. 1, Wilmington street was burglarized last night and a valise containing two suits of clothes and a pair of gaiters stolen out of it. Officer Little went out to investigate and found a man walking on the railroad track on Alameda street, going in the direction of the Chinese Theatre, who was acting suspiciously. The man was carrying a bundle. Little arrested him and brought him to the police office, where it was found that the bundle contained a lot of washing taken from a clothes line. The man gave the name of Wm. White and was booked for petit larceny. Officer Little then went out again and discovered that the man who had stolen the valise had left it at the Tidal Wave Lodging House, where the Monkey Saloon formerly was, on Upper Main street. The man was not in, so Little sat down for awhile and awaited the return of the burglar, who made his appearance at midnight. Little followed him into his room where the valise was found. The thief who gave the name of Frank Ryan, and who is a burly tramp, was locked up on the charge of grand larceny. He had a broken button hook in his pocket which he had probably used to open the door of the room which he burglarized.

Cour de Lion Commandery.

Cour de Lion Commandery No. 9 last night elected the following officers for the ensuing term: Eminent Commander, T. H. Ward; Generalissimo, W. A. Morgan; Captain-General, J. B. Lankershim; Prelate, N. F. Story; Senior Warden, F. Jordan; Junior Warden, E. H. Freeman; Treasurer, E. F. Spence; Recorder, R. T. Mullard.

The Latest News from the Eastern Coast by Wire.

[Special to the Herald by the Associated Press.]

NEW YORK, December 16.—The opening of the stock market to-day was comparatively quiet. Nearly all the brokers had buying orders, and quotations from London being above last night's close, gave a firmer feeling. The stock market after 11 o'clock was much less active, and Louisville and Nashville remained steadier some time, but St. Paul lost 1, Louisville and Nashville 2, Reading 1, and New England 1/2. The general market afterward became heavier, though the losses were for fractions only. A rally succeeded, but for small fractions only, and prices soon gave away again. Western Union showing decided weakness. At noon the market was moderately active and weak.

The government bonds were dull and heavy. There was a marked change in the appearance of the stock market from that of yesterday. The extraordinary activity is disappearing and the wild desire to sell giving way to at least the appearance of renewed confidence, which increased as the day advanced. One factor in producing this result was the increasing use of money. High prices being looked upon as a result of manipulation through the advance on the Bank of England of discount is expected to check in a measure the flow of gold to this country. The opening was comparatively quiet, but strong advances over last evening, the final figures ranging up to 1 1/2 per cent. Heavy selling, however, in the first ten minutes broke back about 5 per cent, and the early gains were generally lost. The trading continued feverish, though toward noon there was a renewed decline, which was finally checked toward 12:30 o'clock. The market thereafter remained strong, the entire active list showing an advance. The last hour saw a marked increase in the business done, as well as a more decided upward movement, and the market closed strong at about the best figures reached. There is not a single stock on the active list showing a decline this evening. While Tennessee coal is up 5 per cent, Sanquhar and Western preferred 3 1/2, Chattanooga 3, Canada Southern 2 1/2, New England 3 1/2, Norfolk and Western preferred and Wabash preferred 2 each. The market closed active and strong.

A Boston Failure.

NEW YORK, December 16.—A Boston special says: The news is just coming out that Charles Winchester, a capitalist, of Ashburnham, Mass., has suspended, chiefly through endorsements and unfortunate investments. The International Trust Co. is reported to have his paper to a large amount. Winchester has been a heavy investor in Southern pine lands, and in lumber and salt in the West. One of the cases of his suspension was the inability of Monroe Bros., of Cleveland, O., to meet their obligations, Winchester being on their paper for a very large amount. A special dispatch from Ashburnham, Mass., says: The announcement this morning of the failure and assignment of Charles Winchester, of this place, for half a million dollars and the embarrassment of several national banks in consequence, caused a stir here and throughout the State. He was a man very easily approached, and his misfortune seems to have been caused by a promissory note for the inability of Monroe Bros., of Cleveland, O., to meet their obligations, Winchester being on their paper for a very large amount.

The Boodlees.

NEW YORK, December 16.—District Attorney Martine stated to-day that McQuade will be brought before the bar of the general sessions court department to-morrow morning, when Recorder Smith will impose sentence and arrangements have already been made for his removal to Sing Sing Monday. Juror Rosenberger's lawyer to-day stated that criminal and civil proceedings would be taken against Vicherman and Nesbitt, who charged him with being a friend of Keenan and some of the boodle ex-almshouses. Mr. Rosenberger visited the District Attorney to-day to have the matter brought before the Grand Jury. Considerable speculation is being indulged in as to what effect the verdict will have on other New ex-almshouses. District Attorney Martine intimated that every precaution would be taken to thwart any attempt which any of the boodlers might make to get out of the jurisdiction of the court.

Are Getting Justice in New York at Last.

Thoroughbred Sale.

LEXINGTON, Ky., December 16.—The joint sale of thoroughbreds was concluded this morning with selling 21 head, which brought $65,250. Only two of them brought $10,000: a brown filly four years old by Reform; mare Emily Fuller Clum and Morgan, Harrodsburg, Ky., $12,500, and Gen. Harrodsburg, Ky., $12,500, five years old, by Imported Great Tom, dam Lisa Davis, Milt Young, $2,100; the sale of American Horse and Cattle Exchange began at 12 o'clock. Fifty head were disposed of for $40,145. The following are among the more important purchases: Grindall, bay colt foaled 1883, by Lisbon, dam Nora, D. P. Paisier, Chicago, $3,500; Phil Lee, chestnut colt, four years old, by Imported Glenathal, dam Verbenas, G. B. Morris, New Orleans, $2,000; Felicitas, brown colt, foaled in 1883, by Virgil, dam Felicia, Wm. Hendy, Ontario, $1,400. Bay filly (sister to Wanderer), foaled in 1884 by Wanderer, $3,500; Fonso, chestnut colt, four years old, by Imported Glenathal, dam Verbenas, G. B. Morris, New Orleans, $2,000; Felicitas, brown colt, foaled in 1883, by Virgil, dam Felicia, Wm. Hendy, Ontario, $1,400. Market for Coupons.

WASHINGTON, December 16.—The Secretary of the Treasury has directed the payment, without rebate, of the interest due January 1, 1887, on United States 4 per cent. bonds of the loan of 1907, amounting to about $900,000, and also the interest on bonds issued to the Pacific Railway, upon presentation of interest checks and coupons at any of the sub-treasuries. Checks for the registered interest will be mailed to the bondholders as soon as prepared.

Hazen's Ill Health.

WASHINGTON, December 16.—Chief Signal Officer Hazen is reported to have a serious attack of diabetes, and it is stated that if he continues to suffer from it he will be relieved next spring. Should such prove to be the case, Captain Greeley, the Arctic explorer, will probably receive a promotion to that office.

A DISGRACE.

Infamous Condition of the Streets.

It is a matter of fact that the people of Los Angeles pay for the services of a Street Superintendent and his wages are liberal. It is further required of him that he keep the streets in a safe condition. Now what are the facts in the case? Holes are dug in Buena Vista street and remain unfilled and without a warning light at night. Earth is piled up on Upper Main street with no light thereon at night, and life has been imperiled as a consequence. Another place of great danger is on Main street in front of Temple block, where the street has been lowered a foot or more on one side and none on the other, leaving a very dangerous difference of 12 or 14 inches in the grade in a perpendicular direction. Why is this artificial bluff not graded off so that it can be traveled in safety?

On Tuesday, as Col. Bethune, Register of the U. S. Land Office in this city, attempted to drive home with his wife and child in a buggy, in passing Temple block, was caught in a very close place. On the east, or southeast side of the street was a pile of building material in the street as the law allows; then there were two street car lines, and the danger was increased. A person could not be allowed by law and not sloped off for safety; then remained the balance of the street paved with asphaltum. Into this miscellany Mr. Bethune drove and found in the passage the Confidence Engine No. 2 going to a fire at full run and the usual cars and teams in the street in full activity. He had to turn off in a hurry to save his life, and drove off down the drop to the asphaltum pavement to the peril of his life, and the safety of his family and the chance of breaking his carriage. He wants to know why the Street Commissioner cannot grade off or compel the contractor to smooth down the declivity so that travel can be safe in the center of the city.

A TEXAS LYCHING.

A Story of Terrible Brutality Brought to Light.

TEXARKANA, Tex., December 16.—Jas. Howard, aged 35 years, was taken from jail here at midnight last night by a masked mob, by whom he was carried a short distance below town and hung to a railroad trestle. Howard was arrested Wednesday on a warrant charging him with maltreating his wife, who is scarcely 14 years old, and to whom he was married last July. Mrs. Howard's story is one of atrocious brutality on the part of her husband. She says he frequently tied her feet together while she was in a state of nudity and hanging her up by the feet, beat her up, and threatened to kill her if she told any one of his cruelties. On the first of November he took a common branding iron and branded a large letter "H" on his wife's person in two places, while she was tied to a wall. He also threatened to kill her if she told any one of his cruelties. STANFORD'S LETTER.

How He Stands on the Sugar Question.

WASHINGTON, December 16.—The following letter from Senator Stanford on the sugar question:

Editor National Republican: Your note, asking for my views on the question of collecting customs duties on sugar, and the internal revenue tax on tobacco, has been received. From my observations of making sugar from beets in California I think the day is not far distant when, with improved machinery, we can produce all the refined sugar needed, as low as it can be produced in any other country, and that in consequence the sugar will be furnished to our people as cheap, if not cheaper, than it can be furnished from abroad. I am therefore against removing its protection. Beet sugar is now made in California with fair success. I visited a beet sugar factory in California recently, the proprietor of which told me that he had made beet sugar at a cost of 4.99 cents per pound with imperfect machinery and that with improved machinery he thought the cost could be reduced at least 1 cent per pound. As a principle I believe in the protection of our home industries against foreign competition and as a consequence of the cultivation of tobacco as a legitimate industry. I see no sufficient reason why it should be ordered while other industries are protected. I am, yours truly,

Remonstrances.

The Banks Safe.

Washington, December 16.—In the House, Dingley, of Maine, presented remonstrances against the Dunn free ship bill from the following associations and firms: Boards of Trade of Bath, Me., Bridgeport, Conn., Minneapolis, Minn., and San Francisco, Cal. The Pacific Coast Ship Owners' Association, National Shipping League, National Ship Owners' Association, E. E. O'Brien, Thomaston, Me., Barleton, Norwood & Co., Rockport, Me., and Harlan & Hollingsworth Co., Wilmington, Del. The remonstrances which were appropriately referred, represent that the adoption of the free ship policy would destroy the ship building industry in the United States and make this country dependent on the British yards for ships for commercial purposes and for defense in time of war.

Washington, December 16.—Trenholm, Comptroller of the Currency, was asked by an Associated Press reporter this afternoon what he thought of the situation in Wall street to-day. "So far as the banks are concerned," he said, "I learned nothing to lead me to think the banks are at all involved in the panic. I have received telegrams from the presidents of several banks, and they all concur in ascribing the present trouble to a collapse in stock operations. The more experienced and conservative bankers prepared for it. So far as my information goes, none of the banks are implicated with any persons reported as embarrassed by the panic."

Another Railroad Bill.

Washington, December 16.—Senator Plumb to-day introduced a bill providing that no railroad, or other company or corporation engaged in interstate commerce should have or keep an officer or, or otherwise provide for or permit the transfer upon the books of such corporation, of any portion of the capital stock of the same any place out of the State by or under the laws which the said incorporation was incorporated, and all transfers of stock of any such corporation at any point or place outside the limits of the State by which such corporation was incorporated, shall be void.

Sent to the Senate.

Washington, December 16.—The President to-day sent the following nominations to the Senate: Erskine M. Ross, of California, to be District Judge for the Southern district of California; J. Marion Brooks, of California, to be attorney for the Southern district of California.

STANFORD ON SUGAR QUESTION.

The Usual Amount of News from the National Capital.

[Special to the Herald by the Associated Press.]

WASHINGTON, December 16.—The House this afternoon passed a bill relating to Indian land. As amended the bill provides that in all cases where any tribe of Indians is located upon a reservation created by its use, either by stipulation or by virtue of an act of Congress, or executive order, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized, whenever in his opinion any reservation of such Indians is advantageous for agricultural and grazing purposes, to cause said reservation to be surveyed, or resurveyed if necessary, and to allot lands in said reservation in severity to Indians located thereon, on their application, in quantities as follows: To each head of a family, one quarter of a section; to each single person over 18 years of age, one-eighth of a section; to each orphan child under 18 years of age, one-eighth of a section; to each other person under 18 years, one-sixteenth of a section; provided, that in case there is not sufficient land in any of said reservations to allot lands to each Indian of the classes above named, in quantities as above provided, lands embraced in such reservation or reservation may be allotted to each individual of each of said classes pro rata, in accordance with the provisions of this act. Rights and privileges of citizenship are conferred upon every Indian born within the territory limits of the United States to whom allotments have been made, and upon every Indian who has voluntarily taken up his residence and adopted habits of civilized life. The provisions of the bill do not extend to the territory occupied by the Cherokees, Creeks, Choctaws, Chickasaws, Seminoles, Osages, Miami, Pecos, Sacs and Foxes in the Indian Territory, nor to any of the reservations of the Seneca nation of New York Indians in the State of New York; nor to that strip of territory in the State of Nebraska adjoining the Sioux nation on the south; nor does the bill authorize the abolition of any reservation until the consent of the majority of the male members 21 years of age shall be first obtained.

BIG EXPLOSION.

Of a Tank with 3500 Gallons of Oil in Philadelphia Brewery.

For the last two days the process of filling up the underground oil tank of the Philadelphia Brewery, also street, had been going on. Last evening, at nearly a quarter to six, whilst Messrs. Zobelein and Maier, the proprietors of the brewery, and A. Giesner, their foreman, were viewing the unloading of a truck of oil for this tank, by an unexplained reason an explosion occurred which blew off the top of the underground tank and shattered the small tank above it into fragments. The burning oil flew in all directions but injured only Mr. Joseph Maier, whose face and hands were burned, though not dangerously. An alarm of fire was turned in immediately by telephone and the Fire Department responded in a remarkably quick manner. The first on the ground was the Hook and Ladder Company, whose foreman, Steele, did some efficient work with the Babcock extinguisher. Then came the "38's" and immediately afterwards the "No. 2's." Assistant Engineer Morarty was one of the first to arrive, and all those who witnessed his hard work and intelligent co-operation ascribe to him the fact that the fire did not spread all over the immense establishment. He and Foreman Steele at once set to work to destroy and tear down a plank fence by which the bottling establishment and the stables and horses were saved. The place where the explosion occurred is near Salsmevin street, only separated from it by a long wooden building devoted to the bottling of beer; on the other side are large brick buildings where the brewing is attended to. The larger tank contained 110 barrels of oil, which will make about 3500 gallons and the smaller one above ground, though nearly empty, had 90 gallons within. By hard work and plying streams of water continuously upon the wooden building, this was preserved from being consumed. When the reporter left at 8 p. m., the oil in the tank was burning fiercely with no prospect for its extinction except when all consumed. Outside of the loss of the oil, which will possibly amount to $800, there may be a few hundred dollars more for things that were burned in the yard. The greatest loss, however, will be a lot of malt in the cellars, which was irretrievably spoiled by water. Great crowds went to see the fire on the outside of the establishment and large numbers of people who managed to get within the brewery during the fire and would not leave when requested, had to be driven out by the police and by an application of the hose. At 1 o'clock the fire in the tank was still burning fiercely, with one engine hard at work pumping water on it. There is no prospect of putting out the blaze until 6 o'clock this morning.

Wedding at Glendale.

Mr. John D. Robinson, one of the enterprising business young gentlemen of Los Angeles, was married last Wednesday evening to Miss Jennie Z. Chase of Glendale, a most estimable young lady.

The wedding took place at the residence of the parents of the bride and was performed by the Rev. W. B. Stradley. The bride looked very beautiful and was handsomely dressed. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Robinson received profuse congratulations from their friends before sitting down to a splendid supper. The wedding was a most successful one, and the bride and groom were the recipients of a number of handsome presents. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson will shortly take up their residence in this city, at the corner of Laurel street and Grand avenue, in an elegant cottage built by the bridegroom.

Case Dismissed.

M. Loricke, superintendent of the Main Street and Agricultural Park Street Railroad Company, was charged on complaint of M. V. Wright, an officer of the Los Angeles Humane Society, with having, on the 16th of October, as superintendent, allowed more than forty persons to be carried at one time on car No. 10 of the said street railway company, which was drawn by only one horse. The complaint was made under ordinance 250, which provides against cruelty to animals. A general demurrer was interposed by defendant's counsel, stating that the complaint did not specify facts sufficient to constitute an offense. Justice Austin, acting as Judge of the City Court, sustained the demurrer and dismissed the complaint.

The Police in a Quandary.

The police seem to have caught elephants in the persons of Frank Ryan and Frank Hart, the confidence operators. They have all the desire in the world to secure a conviction against them, but so far they have been unable to find a statute, to cover the case, that will stick when brought into Court. At present the men are charged with vagrancy, for which they will be tried on Monday. In default of $200 bail they are now in jail. In the meantime, authorities will be examined to see if it is possible to send the "padlock experts" to another place than the County Jail, if their offense is reachable by the law.

Six Months in Jail.

Charles White, an old offender, well known to the police, who stole J. N. Griffin's overcoat out of his wagon in front of the Harper-Reynolds company, Main street, on Monday night, was sentenced yesterday to six months in the county jail by Justice Austin. The overcoat was recovered by Officer Lemon at a second hand store, opposite the new depot, San Fernando street.

Change of Railroad Offices.

The general freight and passenger offices of the Northern Pacific railway company will be removed in a few days to the corner of Commercial and Main streets, in the place now occupied by Siegel, the hatter.

The Union Pacific has taken the rooms now occupied by the Southern Pacific the closed up business of their old headquarters in the St. Elmo.

Fire at San Fernando.

A barn at "Fairview," situated on Senator Maclay's ranch, was burned on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Thirty horses perished in the flames, and the barn, which was full of hay, was entirely consumed. The total loss will amount to about $40,000, on which there was no insurance.

County taxes are now payable and will be delinquent after the last Monday in December.

Judge Ross.

The news which reached this city on Wednesday, pointing to the selection of Judge Ross as the new judge of the Federal District Court recently created for Southern California, was a general surprise to the community. It was known that three very capable lawyers of the Los Angeles bar were applicants for the position, and it was very generally conceded that J. D. Bicknell, Esq., was to be the man.

Judge Ross, only a month or so ago resigned his seat on the Supreme bench of this State for the purpose of going back to the practice of the law in partnership with Hon. S. M. White. The reason for this step was that Judge Ross could not afford to remain on the bench at the salary attached to the office. He was known not to be an applicant for the newly created judgeship of the Federal Court. He probably now is utterly ignorant of how his name came before Attorney-General Garland and the President. His first intimation that the place was to be tendered him, seems to have been the telegram from Mr. Garland asking if he would accept the appointment. The purpose of passing over the capable man applying for the place, and giving it to one who did not appear to want it, is not apparent at this distance.

But, great as the surprise was, there was no disappointment in the community generally. If there was any it was among the personal friends of those who had entertained hopes of securing the appointment, and even with them there cannot be much. Judge Bicknell will be one of the warmest supporters of the new judge, and was doubtless among the first and most sincere of his congratulators.

It is universally conceded that no fitter selection could have been made to fill the bench of the new court. Judge Ross is one of the most popular men in the State, and this popularity rests on broader and surer ground than usually underlies that somewhat evanescent quality of character. Ross' popularity rests on genuine merit, and it widens and strengthens with each year of his life, and with each more intimate acquaintance obtained by his friends. Frank M. Ross is a native of Virginia. He came to Los Angeles immediately after the close of the war. He had but recently attained his majority, but he had borne the rank of Captain in the Confederate army during the latter part of the conflict. Soon after his arrival here he went into the practice of the law and continued at it for some dozen years, when, in 1879, he was elected Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of this State. In the lots for long and short terms the latter fell to Judge Ross, but in 1882 he was re-elected for a full term. Judge Ross was a very young man when he first donned the ermine, but he wore it for seven years not only with spotless integrity, but with a grace of learning, and a wisdom of judgment which are all the admiration of the State, and the pride of Los Angeles. He was untiring in his application to the duties of his office. Above all reproach in their integrity have been his decisions, and they have also been based on a broad and accurate knowledge of the law, and given with a wisdom of interpretation which have won the applause of the best lawyers in the State. In the appointment of so learned a lawyer, and so just a Judge the Administration has made no mistake. Nor are Ross' merits all chronicled in the statements made from a merely professional standpoint. He is learned in polite literature as well as in legal lore; he is besides a man in all the walks of life, and a gentleman in the strictest acceptance of the term.

Judge Ross brings to the duties of his new office the experience of the seven years he sat on the bench of the Supreme Court of the State; the ripe wisdom of mature years, and the energy of a man in the very prime of life. He is intimately versed in all questions peculiar to this district, and will without a doubt prove to be preeminently the very man of all men for the place.

A Proposition to make provision in the new charter for the election of fifteen Councilmen elected for the city government, as now, and then let these fifteen select five of themselves, who shall be salaried, occupy the place of heads of departments, and attend to most of the routine work, seems to be something that merits careful consideration.

Our attention is called, by a correspondent in San Bernardino, to the fact that Mr. Morrison "was laid out horizontally" by his Republican antagonist Jehu Baker, and that the great free trader will not sit in the Fifth Congress. It is well, we are glad to be mistaken, while regretting having made the mistake.

A Characteristic Dodge.

Senator Sherman, always adroit, always cold, always smooth, and always in the interests of monopolies, and money, as against the people, the masses, the poor, shows his fine Italian hand, in the proposition to settle the whole vexed question of tariff reform, by doing away with the internal revenue bureau in one fell swoop. He proposes to do away with the tax on luxuries, to cheapen the rich man's cigar, the millionaire's champagne; to do violence to the professed policy of his party, the sincere principles of one wing of it, by making distilled and malt liquors cheap—and for what? That the iron founders, and all the various forms of manufactures may not be disturbed in their profits. It is that the rich proprietors of factories of all sorts may go on pocketing the full profit of the tariff while the employees are no better paid, and while the average citizen of all callings, more particularly the farmer, the hardest worker, the poorest paid of all the toilers of the land, pay a double price for his shovel, his plow, his horse-shoe; that wool may come in free to enrich the New England manufacturer, while the same farmer sells his wool in direct competition with whatever of pauper labor there may be in the world, and at the same time pay the Massachusetts woolen factory a double price for his coat, his blanket and his socks. That is Mr. Sherman's scheme in a nutshell. It is akin to all his schemes and to all the schemes of his party. The study is most interesting to take the schedule and see how it protects New England, and the millionaire manufacturers of all the Northeast; to see how little of this protection reaches the hands of the toilers in their mills; to see how comparatively few these toilers are even if it did benefit them, and to see how little it protects the many millions engaged in other toil, including the farmers of the entire Union. It is decidedly a jug and the rich Republicans hold the handle on their side.

The name of Hon. J. Marion Brooks of Ventura has been sent to the United States Senate to fill the position of United States District Attorney for the new court of Southern California. There is naturally some disappointment in this city over the appointment of Mr. Brooks. This does not arise from any personal objection to the nominee, but to the fact that we had several applicants for the position here, and the friends of these gentlemen are naturally trieste at the casting down of their hopes. Yet this might have been in great part anticipated. The fact that the Judge comes from here, and that the Marshal and all the minor officials are likely to be Angeleños, suggests probably the very reason why a man from another part of the District is selected for Attorney. There is objection made to Mr. Brooks, but it comes from a source which signifies very little—that is, the Republican press. The wishes of these gentlemen were not consulted in the matter. Strange oversight on the part of the President! It would have been hard to have suited them, as is instanced by their strictures on some of the other candidates for the office whose fitness is beyond all reasonable question. Besides, they entertain a bitter hatred of Brooks, because he had the temerity to contest a seat in the State Senate, which his Republican rival tried to cheat him of. Brooks proved his right to the seat and relegated the other fellow to private life. That is enough to merit the lasting hatred of a Republican politician.

San Fernando street, Upper Main, and Alameda, all run together at "Cape Horn." There is a good deal of confusion as to "which is what" at this point. Now comes an intelligent member of the Council and says the name Main street should apply to all these streets, and be continued to the south end of the Downey avenue bridge. Let San Fernando street be that portion of the present thoroughfare of that name between the junction of the present Downey avenue, along the S. P. track, past the oil works to the river at the intersection of Buena Vista street, and let Alameda street stop where the new Main comes into that thoroughfare south of Naud's warehouse. Then if Upper Main street were renamed to some other appellation, there would be another source of confusion done away with.

Oakland sends Los Angeles greeting, with a copy of the proposed new charter which shall apply to cities of the second class, in which category only the two cities here named come. It appears that the "Athens of the Coast" is unmindful of that urbane courtesy to be expected from so much refinement. Our draft of the bill carefully included the matter of wharfage, vital to the big San Francisco dormitory, but theirs utterly ignores irrigation, so vital to Los Angeles and her interests. Ye men of "Athens," overhaul your Chesterfields and when found learn the polish.

SENATOR STANFORD does the correct thing in opposing the remitting of the present tax on sugar. He points to the possibility of California producing sufficient beet sugar to supply the country at an early day.

OAKLAND'S CHARTER.

Synopsis of the Draft Prepared by the Sister City.

The draft of the charter prepared by a Committee of citizens of Oakland, appointed by the Council of that city on the 17th of May, 1886, was received in this city yesterday. It is intended for corporations of the second-class, among which Los Angeles and Oakland are to be classified, their populations exceeding 30,000 inhabitants. The readers of the HERALD will undoubtedly be interested to know how Oakland proposes to be ruled, a rule which would also apply to Los Angeles, in the event that the charter proposed by the former city should pass the Legislature. Want of space will permit only a brief synopsis of its principal features. From what could be gathered from the committee-men appointed by the Council of this city, to draft a charter, they did not think, after a hasty examination of the Oakland draft, that there were very material differences in the two, excepting probably in the mode of remunerating the members of the Council and the number to be elected.

The provision relating to the election of officers says that such elections shall take place on the second Monday of each even numbered year, when there shall be elected a Mayor, a Treasurer, who shall be ex-officio Clerk of the City Council, an Attorney, a Superintendent of Public Schools, a Police Judge, two Justices of the Peace and a Street Superintendent, who shall respectively hold office for the term of two years, and until their successors are elected and qualified; eleven Councilmen, who shall constitute a board, to be known as the "City Council"; one Councilman shall be elected from each ward, and four Councilmen by the vote of the city at large.

The section relating to the salary of officers is as follows: The compensation to be paid the Mayor shall not exceed three thousand dollars; Mayor's Clerk, twelve hundred dollars; Treasurer and City Clerk, three thousand dollars; Deputy Treasurer and City Clerk, fifteen hundred dollars; City Attorney, two thousand dollars; Street Superintendent, eighteen hundred dollars; Superintendent of Public Schools, twenty-four hundred dollars; Assistant to the Superintendent of Public Schools, twelve hundred dollars; Chief of Police, two thousand dollars; Police Judge, two thousand dollars; Police Officer, two thousand dollars; Fire Warden and Superintendent of Fire and Police Telegraph, eighteen hundred dollars; provided, that the compensation of any officer shall not be increased or diminished during the term for which he is elected or appointed.

Councilmen shall receive ten dollars for each regular meeting of the City Council at which they shall be in actual attendance. The City Council shall meet on the second Monday after their election and at such other time as they may by ordinance appoint. Their meetings shall be public. Their legislative power as existing by the present charter remains undisturbed. They shall in the year 1890 and every tenth year thereafter re-divide the city into seven wards. The wards shall be made as nearly equal in population and as geographically compact as possible, and the division shall be made in such a manner as to make the population in the several wards as nearly equally divided between the political parties as possible, provided that the city shall not be so re-divided within ninety days of a general election.

The City Council shall, between the first and third Mondays of September in each year, fix the rate of taxes to be levied upon all property, both real and personal, in said municipality, necessary to raise sufficient revenue to carry on the various departments of the municipal government for the then ensuing year, not to exceed one dollar for each one hundred dollars upon the assessment roll, and to pay the bonded and other indebtedness of said city. They shall not incur any indebtedness or liability exceeding in any year the income and revenue provided for such year, without the assent of two-thirds of the qualified electors thereof at an election to be held for that purpose, nor unless before, or at the time of incurring such indebtedness, provision shall be made for the collection of an annual tax sufficient to pay the interest on such indebtedness as it falls due, and also to constitute a sinking fund for the payment of the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same. Any indebtedness or liability, incurred contrary to this provision, shall be void.

There shall be four Police and Fire Commissioners appointed by the Mayor, to be known as the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners. In making such appointments the Mayor shall not appoint more than two of the same political party. The term of office of said Commissioners shall be four years. The Mayor shall, ex-officio, be a member of and the presiding officer of the Board, and shall have the casting vote in all cases where there shall be a tie vote, but he shall have no vote in the appointment of any member of the Police and Fire Departments. The Board shall appoint the Police Department and the Fire Department of the city, but no appointments or removals shall be made for political reasons; the Board shall prescribe the qualifications and duties of the officers, members and employees of the departments; shall have the general management and control thereof, shall make rules and regulations for their government and discipline, and prescribe and enforce penalties for their violation; shall hear and summarily determine all complaints of misconduct, inefficiency, or violation of the rules, or other charge against any officer, member or employee of the departments, and take such action thereon as shall be most conducive to the maintenance, discipline and efficiency of the department.

The Police Department shall consist of a Captain of Police and as many policemen, not of any one thirty, as may be deemed necessary; and the Fire Department shall consist of a Chief Engineer, and as many drivers, horsemen and other employees, not exceeding seventy, as the Board may determine to be necessary. All officers and members of the Police Department and Fire Department shall hold their positions during good behavior and until removed for good cause affecting their official character or competency.

County taxes are now payable and will be delinquent after the last Monday in December.

Art Sale To-Night. Northrup & Clark will this evening hold a great auction sale at their warerooms, 246 Main street, of all paintings and sketches in black and white, by the well known and talented artists, the Misses Gamble of this city. The ladies desire great encouragement for their brave struggle to perfect their skill and accomplishments in the profession which they have chosen. The pictures are on exhibition at the warerooms of Northrup & Clark, in Baker Block, and the lovers of art will find it very pleasant to call there to-day and examine the fine display. There will be some rare bargains obtained to-night in paintings and sketches.

injured in person or property by such neglect.

The government of the School Department of the city shall be vested in a Board of Education, to consist of the same number of members as there are wards in the city, and to be called School Directors. One School Director shall be elected from each ward at the regular municipal election, by the vote of the city at large, and shall hold office for the term of four years. The school fund shall consist of all moneys received from the School Fund; of all moneys arising from taxes which shall be levied annually by the City Council of the city for school purposes; of all moneys arising from the sale, rent or exchange of any of the school property, and of such other moneys as may, from any source whatever, be paid into any school fund; which fund shall be separate and distinct from all other moneys, and shall only be used for school purposes under the provisions of this chapter. If, at the end of any fiscal year, any surplus remains in the School Fund, such surplus money shall be carried forward to the School Fund of the next fiscal year, and shall not be diverted from said fund, except under certain provisions.

The Board of Health is to consist of six members—the Mayor, who shall be ex-officio and President of the Board; and four citizens, to be appointed without regard to their political opinions, by the City Council. The four said citizens shall be physicians in good standing, and graduates of some regular medical college, who shall hold office for two years. The Board of Health shall have a suitable office, to be known as the Health Office, in which they shall hold their official meetings. They shall also have general supervision of all matters pertaining to the sanitary condition of the city, including jails, hospitals and all public health institutions.

The Board may appoint and remove at pleasure a Health Officer, who shall act as City Physician, and shall be the executive officer of the Board. It will be his duty to see that the ordinances of public health and the rules and regulations of the Board of Health are enforced.

This synopsis is naturally not as complete as the HERALD would like to have presented it to its readers, but the draft contains forty-eight pages. At all events its principal features have been here condensed, and will give a good idea of its contents.

"Nellie Boyd." The play of "Unknown" will be presented to-night, at the Opera House, by Miss Boyd and her own company. The company have been here before, and always did well. The play of "Unknown" is very strong, the story of which runs thus: The play tells the story of a young man that came from India to see a half-sister whom he did not know. The sister is not aware that she has a brother or that her father has been married before. She has been left in charge of a guardian who has squandered her estate, and who to save himself from disgrace, is striving to marry her. This guardian intercepts a letter from the brother to her, and for the first time, learns of a male heir to the estates. He, with a villainous friend, meets the young man on his arrival in the city and gets him to start for the shore with them, and while on the way, they shoot him and throw his body overboard. A faithful friend, the boatswain of the vessel, rescues him and he is taken to the hospital, where he recovers his health, but his reason is impaired. He escapes from the hospital and wanders from door to door, asking for his sister, who unknowingly takes care of him. He is then the means of saving her on more than one occasion and in the end his reason is restored by seeing a picture of his mother, and the wicked men of the play are defeated. Every act of the play closes with a stirring tableau. The scenery is unusually good, especially the bay scene, over which the steamer Plymouth Rock sails, loaded with passengers.

A Clever Capture. About two weeks ago a Chinaman named Yung Tung, but who goes by the American name of Ah Sam, borrowed a horse from A. A. Jepson, at Ventura to ride to Hueneme, but instead of returning it started down the coast trying to sell the animal. On Sunday last he left the horse at San Fernando and came to Los Angeles on foot. He then cut off his queue close to his skull and hired out to work at the Popular restaurant on Main street. Sheriff A. J. Snodgrass of Ventura, followed him to this city and gave a description of the fellow to Detective T. F. Botello, who is also deputy constable. The officer took the case in hand and by careful inquiry of a Chinaman got track of the thief, arrested him and turned him over to Sheriff Snodgrass who took him back to Ventura last night. Officer Botello is deserving of much credit for this very clever capture.

Lamb-Jordan-Price Company. Of this excellent company that is soon to appear at the Grand Opera House in this city, the San Francisco Call of December 21 says: "The Lamb-Jordan-Price Company have had a warm and even brilliant reception at the Bush-street and will continue to please the public greatly with their new American drama of adventure, 'On the Rio Grande.' The gentlemen named are very capable in their respective parts, and, generally speaking, the drama, neatly constructed, is well played." This company appears at the Grand Opera House next Tuesday.

Undelivered Messages. The following are undelivered telegrams at the Western Union office, at No. 17 North Main street: J. Doherty, A. J. McNicol, H. F. Maud, Thomas Derby, C. E. Mackey, Noah Hawk, Wm G. Wood, care J. F. Smith; Mrs. A. Johnston, Pablo Lopez, D. C. Porter.

Church of the Unity. Next Sunday morning, at the Opera House, by special request, Dr. Fay will discuss the following question: "Is the doctrine of endless punishment in a burning hell reconcilable with the explicit teaching of Christ that God is our Father?"

Marriage Licenses. Marriage licenses were issued to the following named persons yesterday: Wm. M. Friesner to Addie B. Towell; G. W. Hall to Elizabeth Burns; R. W. Knowles to E. E. Field; Wm. Clark to L. A. Reid.

County taxes are now payable and will be delinquent after the last Monday in December.

Knights Templar Hall.

The work of completing the interior decorations of the Knight Templar Hall, in the Los Angeles National Bank block, is progressing rapidly, the fine mural paintings for the dome of the large hall being more than half finished. This hall is a very large and roomy one, well lighted by large windows from Spring street. There is a large gallery at the south end of the hall as well as an armory and numerous small apartments which are to be devoted to the use of the officers and the Knights. Besides the large hall there is a commodious banquet hall, with windows on First street. A broad stairway leads to the third floor in which the Knights have their fine asylum. It is not quite certain yet when the place will be ready for occupancy, but by the way the work is going on it will not be later than the middle of January.

EDW. A. HALL, Agent, 57 South Spring street, Los Angeles.

WALTER S. NEWHALL, Auctioneer, 235 Bush street, San Francisco.

We will Sell, by Order of H. P. Lantz, Trustee,

Thursday, December 23, 1886,

AT 2 O'CLOCK P. M., ON THE GROUNDS,

UNLESS THE DAY SHOULD BE UNPLEASANT, IN WHICH EVENT SALE WILL TAKE PLACE IN ARMORY HALL, MOTT BUILDING, ON MAIN STREET, AT THE SAME HOUR,

121--Large Building Lots--121

ALSO, LARGE, TWO-STORY HOUSE,

Barns, Outbuildings, Etc., Etc.,

COMPRISING ALL THE PROPERTY OF THE

BLISS TRACT,

ON ALAMEDA STREET SOUTH OF FIRST TWO BLOCKS

TERMS OF SALE:

Ten days allowed or search of title; principal and interest payable in U. S. gold coin; a deposit of 10 per cent. required on each lot on the fall of the hammer; one-third cash; one-third in nine months and balance in twelve months; interest 9 per cent. per annum.

SITUATION:

Only one-half mile from center of city, on level ground, bounded by railroad on one side, and almost adjoining the recent purchase of the A. & P. Railroad, which is to be used for a Union Depot, on the other. It is so near the business center of the city that (even with the Second Street Cable Railroad, which will be soon built and is running order) that the walking distance is so slight one would very seldom use the cars.

AS AN INVESTMENT

This property offers more inducement than anything that has ever been offered at public auction in this city. Situated right in the heart of the city, it is not only desirable for residences, but warehouses, stores and manufactures will soon be built on the Alameda street front. Any one purchasing may safely calculate on doubling their money within six months. Remember, this property is so close to center of city it will always steadily improve; and, as our city grows, so will the values in the BLISS TRACT increase. With our population at 100,000 this property will be worth five times what it will sell for at auction.

DONT' WAIT.

Go to-day and examine the property, mark your catalogue, and be ready for a "rainy day," for if it rains we shall not sell on the grounds, but in Mott Hall, Main street.

For maps, catalogues and other information apply to
